

Science Communication Workshop

SciComm 101

Annamalai University, Chidambaram

The Wellcome Trust/DBT India Alliance is an £80 million initiative funded equally by The Wellcome Trust, UK and Department of Biotechnology, India. The broad aim of the India Alliance is to build excellence in the Indian biomedical scientific community by supporting future leaders in the field.

Science communication plays an integral role in one's scientific career. Being able to effectively disseminate research findings within the community and to consider collective opinions in prioritizing research needs is an important attribute of scientific maturity.

In keeping with its mandate to empower future leaders of Indian science, it is our pleasure to announce the launch of SciComm- 101 at Annamalai University.

The one-day workshop is designed to impart training in Science communication, Grant writing, Manuscript writing, Power-Point presentation, Poster presentation and to bring awareness in Research ethics. The modules include case study discussions which are aimed at stimulating intense discussions among participants. The intended participants are Ph.D. students, preferably in the final year of their programme. The sessions are time-bound and participation in all sessions is a mandatory requirement to receive a certificate of participation.
