Your final article must reach us by April 20, 2017.

NCRB Journal

Submission Guidelines

The NCRB Journal is intended to encourage practitioners, academics, and aspiring writers to submit their original and previously unpublished work in English / Hindi for publication.

The manuscript should be typed in 12 point (for Hindi 14 point), double space with at least 1 inch margin in MS-Word. The manuscript normally should not exceed 5,000 words, however, lengthy articles may also be considered for publication on the discretion of editorial board. The manuscript should include an abstract of approximately 150 words, and 4-5 keywords. At the end of the paper a reference list in alphabetical order in APA reference style should be supplied. All photos and illustrations (monochrome/colour) should be of high quality, with good contrast and sharpness. Electronic images are required and must be saved as separate files in JPG, PNG or TIF format, with 300 dpi or higher resolution and a minimum of four inches wide. Bar charts, diagrams, and sketches, etc., should be drawn accurately and clearly. If a chart has supporting data, supply it in Excel format. A caption should accompany each graphic and should accurately describe what is represented in the graphic. For manuscript in Hindi, please use Unicode font (Mangal).

The Manuscripts are subject to both review and editing. All manuscripts accepted for publication shall be property of NCRB Journal. No article or part of it shall be reproduced or used by author without permission.

Please provide a brief biographical sketch for each author, describing their training and expertise in the subject area. Include the correct name, title, affiliation, and contact information including a phone number and email address.
