I. Faculty of Education

The Faculty of Education came into existence during the year 1953 and at present it comprises of three Departments, namely, Department of Education, Department of Psychology and Department of Physical Education.

The Department of Education is a beehive of academic activities from its inception in 1953. The building of the Department of Education was inaugurated by the eminent Philosopher and Former President of India Dr. S. Radhakrishnan on 26th December 1955. The Department offers B.Ed., M.Ed., M.Phil., Ph.D., and D.Litt programmes. All the Teacher Education Programmes are recognized by the NCTE. The Department of Education is supported by UGC under SAP – DRS-II. The distinguished alumni of the Department of Education are working as Vice-Chancellor and Head of the Departments in various Universities, Principals in various colleges, Chief Education Officers and District Education officers.

The Department of Education provides ample opportunities for the B.Ed. teacher trainees for all round development of their personality and enable them to attain high level of skills and character needed for a teacher. The Department offers training on Computers, training in Yoga, Scouts, First Aid and community service. The weekly activity of the Education Association encompasses soft skill development, socially relevant activity, music and sports. The internship programme in schools under the guidance and supervision of the faculty members is mandatory which provides hands on training. The teaching methodology adopted renders the trainees to face any competitive examination and instruction to the various levels.
