

M Sc (Ag) - Plant Pathology

Programme Outcomes

PO 1 A postgraduate degree in Plant Pathology prepares the students for a career with high research capabilities and superior teaching skills.

PO 2 With clear knowledge of biological and physiological Interactions between plants and their pathogens upto molecular level.

PO 3 With a knowledge of all the new innovative methodologies to manage plant diseases

PO 4 To become an expert in Detection and diagnosis of pathogens/diseases in different crops.

PO 5 With an awareness of the Epidemiological aspects of plant pathology and the factors involving for the disease development

PO 6 Highly trained to successfully run Plant Health clinics involving people and try to become a Subject Matter Specialist in KVKs

PO 7 To become a self entrepreneur in Mushroom cultivation, mass multiplication of bio control agents, low cost organic products for plant disease management, compost preparation etc.,