With the burgeoning biomedical and pharmaceutical industry, there is a growing interest in obtaining human tissues for research, validation and commercial purposes. Researchers must be aware of the ethical and legal issues involved in using human tissues and comply with the Human Tissue Act (2004). Informed consent must be obtained.

31.9 Where research is being conducted in collaboration with another institution outside the University, the ethics policies of those institutions should be appended to any proposals to be considered by the Research Ethics Committee of this University, provided the experiments are carried out in this University. If the experiments are carried out in the collaborating institution the procedure may be reversed.
XXXII. RESEARCH ETHICS

Annamalai University is committed to undertaking research with impeccable scientific integrity and in conformity with the accepted code of principles on Good Research Practices (GRP). GRP is concerned with the organizational process and the conditions under which academic research is planned, performed, monitored, recorded, archived and reported. This requires appropriate training and supervision to ensure the highest achievable standards for conducting research. All Research Scholars and Supervisors shall follow these guidelines while planning and executing research.

32.1 Scientific Integrity

All Researchers shall maintain a very high degree of integrity with respect to all aspects of research including application for funding, designing and conducting experiments, analysing data and publication of results.

32.2 Ethical and Legal Requirements

All Researchers must be aware and comply with the ethical and legal requirements relating to human participants, animals disclosures of personal information, biological material transfer and testing, and biodiversity protection before undertaking research. All Researchers are expected to follow the standard procedures for conducting research laid down by relevant scientific and professional bodies.

32.3 Conflict of Interest

A conflicting interest exists when professional judgement concerning a primary interest such as scientific knowledge may be influenced by a secondary interest such as financial gain, personal advancement or personal rivalry. Conflicts of interests may influence interpretation of results. Examples of potential conflicts of interest include employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, patent applications/registrations, and grants or other funding. All conflicts of interest, perceived, potential or actual, must be declared.

32.4 Safety

A researcher must be aware of the safety precautions and potential hazards of materials and equipment, use, storage and disposal of chemicals, how to deal with spills and accidents and requirement for vaccinations when dealing with biological samples. Equipment used to generate data should be calibrated and serviced regularly to ensure optimal and reproducible performance. A Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) and easily accessible instructions for safe shutdown in case of emergency should be maintained for each equipment.

32.5 Economy

All Researchers shall exercise the principle of economy in the use of resources including infrastructure facilities, equipment and consumables. Regular review meetings shall be conducted by the Research Advisory Committee to assess the progress of research and to decide when to stop experiments.
32.6 Documentation of Data

32.6.1 All data must be recorded promptly, accurately, legibly, indestructibly, and signed and dated by the Research Scholar and countersigned by the Supervisor. Confidentiality is important for data publication and protecting intellectual property.

32.6.2 All raw data, documents, protocols, specimens and reports shall be retained and archived by the Research Supervisor. Data must be retained intact for a period of at least 7 years from the date of any publication. Proper documentation of data will help in establishing ownership rights, and provide proof against charges of cheating or falsification.

32.7 Publication

Annamalai University encourages Researchers to publish research data while emphasizing the paramount importance of quality over quantity. All Researchers shall refrain from “fudging” and fabricating data. If an error is detected after publication, the corresponding author shall request the journal to publish an erratum. If there are concerns and serious doubts about the authenticity of the data, the authors shall retract the paper from the journal. Any deviation from GRP and indulgence in research misconduct will be dealt with severely as detailed in the ensuing section.

32.8 Dissemination

Results that are published may be disseminated, provided there is no infringement on any Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). However, Researchers must exercise utmost caution in discussing work that is incomplete, unpublished, or pending patent application.

XXXIII. RESEARCH MISCONDUCT

33.2.2 Falsification which refers to manipulation of research materials, equipment, or processes or changing or omitting data or results such that the research is not accurately represented in the research record.
33.2.3 Plagiarism that involves the appropriation of another person’s ideas, processes, results, or words without giving appropriate credit. Plagiarism also includes deliberate failure to appropriately credit prior work by others thereby giving a false impression of priority (citation plagiarism). Self-plagiarism is also considered as scientific misconduct.

33.2.4 Ghost-writing, the practice of commissioning an anonymous writer is also regarded as a form of plagiarism because it undermines the integrity of scientific publication system.

33.2.5 Unacceptable Authorship:

Guest authorship refers to granting authorship out of respect for an individual, or because it will increase the likelihood of publication, credibility, or status of the work.

Gift authorship is credit offered from a sense of obligation, or anticipated benefit, to an individual who has not contributed to the work. Ghost authorship is denying authorship to an individual who has made substantial contributions to the research or writing of a manuscript.

33.2.6 Violation of ethical standards in human and animal experiments.

33.2.7 Suppression or failure to publish findings adverse to the researchers’ interests.

33.2.8 Failure to follow established protocols if this failure results in unreasonable risk or harm to humans or the environment and facilitating of misconduct in research by collusion in, or concealment of, such actions by others.

33.2.9 Intentional, unauthorized use, disclosure or removal of, or damage to, research-related property of another, including apparatus, materials, writings, data, hardware or software or any other substances or devices used in or produced by the conduct of research.

XXXIV. INVESTIGATION OF RESEARCH MISCONDUCT

34.1 A committee duly constituted by the University will investigate complaints of alleged research misconduct by the research Scholar and/or Supervisor.

34.2 Confidentiality will be maintained during the investigation including the identity of the individual registering the complaint (complainant).

34.3 If the misconduct is unintended, due to an error in interpretation, or the charges are baseless, the complaint will be dismissed. However, a report will be filed in the office.

34.4 If the complaint is credible, the committee, after informing the Ph.D. student and Research Supervisor against whom the complaint has been made (the subjects), will assess the authenticity of the charge, and the nature of the misconduct based on the material information available.

34.5 The subject will be allowed to defend himself/herself. However, he/she shall provide the Committee access to reports, raw data, electronic records, manuscripts and any other material relevant to the investigation.
34.6 The Committee shall complete its investigation and submit its report on the recommended course of action within a period of sixty days.

34.7 Annamalai University regards research misconduct as a serious offence and any member of staff/students may raise bonafide concerns confidentially and without fear of suffering a detriment. However, if the allegations prove to be made frivolously or with malicious intent, formal action against the complainant will be initiated.

34.8 If the charges of misconduct are proved, the subject(s) will be notified and disciplinary action initiated.

Guidelines for the Preparation of Synopsis

The Research Scholar shall be permitted to submit the synopsis three months prior to the completion of his/her minimum duration.

The Research Scholar shall submit a copy of the synopsis of his/her research work prepared in accordance with the format and specification prescribed, to the RAC through the Research Supervisor.
